Gran Canaria

An island to discover and enjoy...

1 Maspalomas - Mogán

A piece of desert by the Atlantic...

Walk along the dunes of white sand surrounded by lush palm groves. Take a soothing stroll by the seashore from Playa del Inglés to Meloneras. Behold the beauty of Puerto de Mogán, with its picturesque canals and restaurants where you can eat beautiful fresh fish.

Maximum approximate distance to Maspalomas: 37 min. | Mogán: 55 min.
Recommended time: ½ day to Maspalomas, a full day including Mogán.

2 Guía - Gáldar - Agaete

A trip in the aboriginal heart of the island...

Take a look at the magnificent rock art and traditions of the pre-Hispanic population of the island in Cueva Pintada (painted cave) of Gáldar. Behold the spectacular aboriginal collective granary of Cenobio de Valerón; the hidden magic of the valley of Agaete, where ancient Canarians raised the necropolis of Maípes and where the only coffee produced in Europe grows. Enjoy the sunset of Puerto de las Nieves.

Maximum approximate distance to Agaete: 33 min.
Recommended time: 1 day.

3 Telde - Ingenio - Agüimes

A wander through the local customs and traditions...

Go around the districts of San Juan and San Francisco, the foundations of Telde. Feel the black sand beaches of La Garita and Melenara under your feet. Visit the Museo de Piedras y Artesanía Canaria (rock and Canarian craftsmanship museum) of Ingenio, and admire the lace work and other local handicrafts on view. Stroll through the old town of Agüimes and the incredible ravine of Guayadeque, with its cave-houses and authentic restaurants.

Maximum approximate distance to Telde: 18 min. | Agüimes: 32 min.
Recommended time: ½ day to Telde, a full day including Ingenio and Agüimes

4 Sta. Brígida - San Mateo - Tejeda

An excursion through the greenest and most volcanic side of Gran Canaria...

Go for a trip on the outside of the caldera of Bandama, orchards and vineyards and volcanic territory two steps away from the first golf course of Spain. Wander round La Vega de San Mateo and take a look at agricultural market which opens every weekend. Do not miss Tejeda, a beautiful cluster of houses awarded as one of the "prettiest villages of Spain". Let yourself be dazzled by the petrified shapes of the Roque Nublo and Bentayga, two icons of Gran Canaria.

Maximum approximate distance to Tejeda: 1 hr. 12 min.
Recommended time: 1 day

5 Arucas - Teror

An immersion in the craftsmanship and gastronomy of the island...

Discover the surroundings of the Parish of San Juan Bautista, which displays a traditional neogothic style, and the streets of the old town, where you can appreciate the wonderful local stone work. Climb up the mountain of Arucas, which offers a panoramic view onto the capital and the north of the island, and the rum factory Distilerías Arehucas. Take a glance at the traditional balconies and craftsmanship and try typical food around the basilica of Nuestra Señora del Pino in Teror, the see of the island's patroness saint.

Maximum approximate distance to Teror: 26 min.
Recommended time: ½ day.

YOU ARE IN THE CAPITAL, LAS PALMAS DE GRAN CANARIA

The capital of the island, founded in 1478, has become an important cosmopolitan enclave in the Atlantic since Columbus stopped off there to repair one of his vessels during his trip to America. The port of Las Palmas has developed extensively over time and its business and shopping facilities have expanded turning the capital into a modern and interesting city. The old town, the colonial design of the neighbourhood of Vegueta and the beach of Las Canteras, one of the best urban beaches of the world, make the city a great tourist destination, with tradition, museums and an attractive offer of culture and leisure activities.

Port - Las Canteras beach 10 min.
